Pop Zone

We know Amber Kuo for her voice and pretty face. However, behind her beauty, there are a lot stories. When she was a little girl, her mother died. She felt very sad, so she cried for several days. After she went to junior high school, she seldom went home after school because she thought a house without a mother wasn't home. However, she was still hard-working and later went into a good senior high school and university. At her university, some people found she was good at writing songs. Each of her songs showed the feeling of missing her mom and the pain of losing her mom. In 2007, she began to act on TV. Later, she started to sing, too. Almost all of her works are popular in Taiwan now, but Amber Kuo is never proud. Because of her mother's love and her own hard work, she becomes a famous star.

Rubber Ducks came to Taiwan!!

Rubber ducks are a popular children's bath toy. In 2007, the Dutch artist, Florentijn Hofman decided to make a giant copy of the fun toy. The name of his rubber duck was Rubber Duck. Like the big letters, Rubber Duck was huge! In fact, it was 18 meters tall and 25 meters wide.

The giant yellow rubber duck showed a sensation in Hong Kong this summer because it turned busy Victoria Harbor into one giant bathtub. The rubber duck is currently in Taiwan at the Glory Pier in Kaohsiung from September 19 to October 20. So, if you can't go to Kaohsiung to see it, you can also see it on Houhu Pond in Taoyuan from October 26 to November 10, or at the Maritime Plaza in Keelung from December 21 to February 1 next year.

It is Hofman's hope to use the Rubber Duck to connect people together by a happy memory of their childhood and also to show people's love for art. To Hofman, when the people visit the art, they become a part of the art. Hofman said he wants to surprise people and to put a smile on their face. He wants people to forget about their problems and to enjoy the art no matter how old or how young they are.
