My mom enjoys cooking, so she goes to a cooking club on Wednesday evenings. After she learns cooking lessons, she makes special dishes for us on weekends. Three weeks ago, Mom cooked ramen, a Japanese dish. The ramen was yummy. We all liked it and ate it up. Two weeks ago, Mom baked lasagna, Italian noodles, with cheese, meat and tomato sauce. It was really delicious, so we also ate us out of house and home. My mom was happy to see that.

There was a potluck party at the Green's place last Sunday. Mom prepared laddu; it was sweet and looked like balls. Everyone kept eating, talking and laughing at the party. Laddu was popular with all the guests. We all had fun at the party, too. Mom felt very happy even when she needed to do the dishes on Sunday evening.

Dear Diary,

Today is my birthday, and my family and I invited Ted to my birthday party. Ted prepared a pair of sunglasses and flowers for me as the birthday gift. It is so nice of him! We had a big dinner at our house because Mom enjoys cooking and baking. Mom prepared buns, steak, French fries and cheese hamburgers for us. She is really good at cooking, and we all ate the food up because it was very yummy. We had a good time eating and talking all night, and I also learned about an interesting fact! Ted is not good at using knives and forks, and we the Canadians have trouble using chopsticks. People in Japan slurp when they eat noodles. It means "yummy." How interesting!

BTS UN SPEECH

Bangtan Boys (BTS) made history because they are the first K-pop group to speak at the United Nations (UN) on September 24th. Kim Nam-joon (RM), the leader of the group, shared their stories and their dreams for about seven minutes. The speech touched many people around the world.

RM told people to listen to their own voice and to love themselves.

When RM was nine or ten, he worried about people's ideas about him. Because of this, he could not listen to his own voice for a long time, as he said in the speech, "I, we, all lost our names. We became like ghosts." Luckily, there was a voice inside him, "Wake up, man!" The calling was music.

In the end, RM told people to love themselves, "people have many faults, and people have many fears, but people have to love themselves first." So, now what about you? Do you listen to your own voice and love yourself today?
